
PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the Seahawks have shown tremendous heart and determination this season, bringing us to the Super Bowl for a second year in a row; and
- WHEREAS, Seattle and 12s everywhere are proud of the accomplishments made by the Seahawks – proving that our team has what it takes to reach the top; and
- WHEREAS, the Seahawks embrace a philosophy where they approach every moment and every game as championship moments, take games one at a time and focus on the immediate task at hand to keep them grounded as they move forward together as a team in accomplishing their goals; and
- WHEREAS, 12s around the country showed their unwavering support for the Seahawks this season, showing a loyalty and world record-shattering volume that is unmatched in professional sports; and
- WHEREAS, today we join together and celebrate the Seahawks and the 12s, who brought our city together with an unmatched spirit of camaraderie, and look forward to what will be accomplished next year;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE SEATTLE CITY COUNCIL AND THE MAYOR DO HEREBY PROCLAIM FEBRUARY 2, 2015 TO BE, IN SEATTLE

“Always a 12” Day

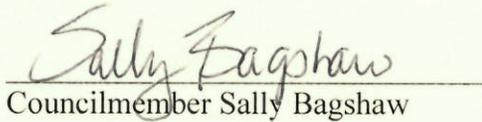

PROCLAMATION

Mayor Edward B. Murray

Council President Tim Burgess

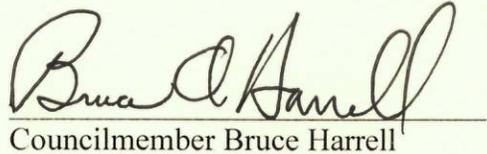

Councilmember Sally Bagshaw

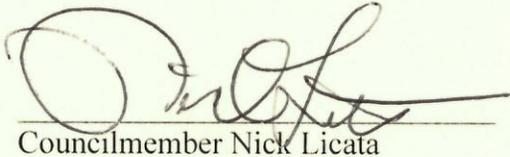

Councilmember Sally J. Clark

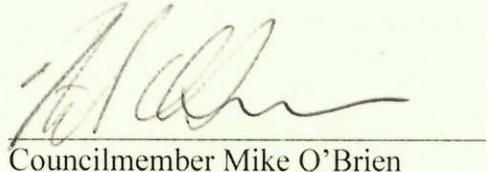

Councilmember Jean Godden

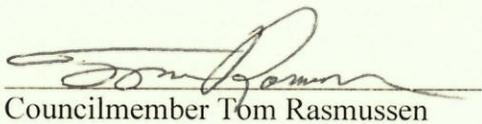

Councilmember Bruce Harrell

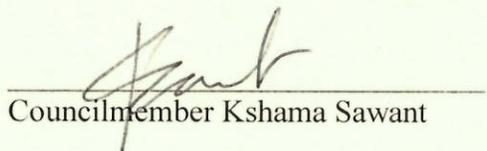

Councilmember Nick Licata

Councilmember Mike O'Brien

Councilmember Tom Rasmussen

Councilmember Kshama Sawant